DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 29 October 2007 has been entered.

Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-64 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The amendment to claims 1, 22, 43 and 64, filed 30 October 2007, clarifying the claimed opening is a slit or aperture through the inner layer is supported by the Specification as originally filed at, inter alia, the Abstract, paragraphs [0012, 43, 44]. This further clarification serves to further distinguish over the prior art of record as noted below.

With respect to US 6,174,303 issued to Surprise et al: teaches a diaper comprising a chassis, a woven or nonwoven inner layer, a flexible outer cover that can optionally be stretchable or elastic, leg and waist openings, and elastic waist flaps comprising dual fasteners, one set of the dual fasteners engages a fastening panel on the outer cover and the second set of the dual fasteners engages the woven or nonwoven inner layer in the back waist region. Surprise does not teach an elastic inner layer defining an opening, slit or aperture through the elastic inner layer; does not teach the fasteners capable of engaging directly into an elastic inner layer in the back waist region or capable of engaging directly any elastic portion of the outer cover.

With respect to US 2005/0148987 A1, Van Gompel et al: the examiner notes that this copending application was also made of record by its Publication Number by the examiner in PTO-892, "List of references cited by examiner", mail date 12 October 2007, after search and consideration of subject matter.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
